LB 419A, 529A, 757

yesterday, right after lunch. Also an announcement about the tour tomorrow. Because of the silver anniversary celebration at the Agricultural Research and Development Center, that agenda has been set back one hour, one hour. Buses or a van will leave from the west entrance of the Capitol at four o'clock as opposed to members of the Legislature journeying to the East Campus by private auto and joining the bus at that point. Departure tomorrow afternoon for the tour to Mead, the van will be at the west entrance at four o'clock. There are four to five additional slots available for anyone who might want to go. Please let my office know. Senator Lamb, Senator Schmit, Senator Korshoj, I'm sorry, Coordsen. My humble apologies to the both of you. Senator Chambers, would you care to start your close as we are waiting? Apparently, neither of the absentees are in the building. They can't be located at this point. You waive closing, Senator Chambers? You are ready to take the vote? Did you ask for a roll call? A machine vote. The question is, shall LB 757 be advanced to E & R Initial? All in favor vote aye, opposed nay. Have you all voted? Have you all voted if you care to vote? Record, Mr. Clerk.

CLERK: 21 ayes, 21 nays, Mr. President, on the motion to advance the bill.

SPEAKER BARRETT: The bill fails to advance. Anything for the record?

CLERK: One item, Mr. President. New A bill, 419A, two new A bills, excuse me. (Read by title for the first time, LB 419A and LB 529A as found on page 1565 of the Legislative Journal.) That is all that I have.

SPEAKER BARRETT: Thank you. Senator Chizek, would you care to recess us until one-thirty.

SENATOR CHIZEK: Mr. Speaker, I would move that we recess until 1:30 p.m.

SPEAKER BARRETT: Thank you. You've heard the motion. All in favor say aye. Opposed no. Carried. Recessed until one-thirty.
